

Interreg

North Sea Region

Building with Nature

European Regional Development Fund

Building with Nature

A building philosophy using the forces in natural systems to make coasts, estuaries and catchments more resilient to climate change.

Living laboratories form an evidence base for:

- determining effectiveness of costs and benefits
- selecting and designing future sites and measures
- dissemination of the Building with Nature approach

